

Macerich Releases 2023 Corporate Responsibility Report

August 15, 2024

Report marks 15 years of industry-leading sustainability strategy by leading retail real estate company

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Aug. 15, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Macerich (NYSE: MAC), one of the nation's leading owners, operators and developers of major retail properties in top markets, today released its 2023 Corporate Responsibility Report, with data for the period ending December 31, 2023.

This year's "Together for Tomorrow" theme emphasizes the company's environmental sustainability, social and governance efforts in service of its mission of owning and operating thriving retail centers that bring communities together and create long-term value for shareholders, partners and customers.

"Our 'Together for Tomorrow' approach to corporate responsibility, highlighted in this year's report, encompasses not only our environmental leadership in our industry, but our laser focus on delivering material social and financial outcomes," said Olivia Bartel Leigh, Macerich Executive Vice President, Portfolio Operations and People. "We will continue to prioritize sustainability efforts that demonstrate our stewardship of both natural resources and financial resources, as well as social initiatives that enhance the communities Macerich serves."

This year's report unveils new, ambitious targets that redefine Macerich's environmental goals and exceed the company's initial commitment to achieve carbon neutrality by 2030. On track for that goal, Macerich has unveiled its second-step goal: to achieve full net-zero emissions, including in its supply chain, by 2040.

Highlights of Macerich's 2023 corporate responsibility engagement include:

- 34% percent of the portfolio's energy consumption derived from clean electricity
- #23 on the EPA Green Power Partnership On-Site Generation list for solar generation
- #1 ranking in Retail, Americas/Rated A for Disclosure in the 2023 GRESB Real Estate Assessment (ninth straight year Macerich has ranked #1 in the U.S. Retail: Retail Centers sector)
- 2,300+ community events hosted at Macerich properties
- 433 unique organizations supported through volunteerism and giving
- Among America's Most Responsible Companies as ranked by Newsweek
